Improv Mining Company performs hilarious plays, made up on the spot!

February 17, March 3, & March 17, 2023, at 7:30 p.m.

Montana Playwrights Network invites you to attend a special improv performance series featuring Helena's own Improv Mining Co at the Helena Avenue Theatre (HAT), 1319 Helena Avenue in Helena, MT. Dates for upcoming performances are February 17th, March 3rd, and 17th at 7:30 p.m.

Pulling from audience suggestions, Improv Mining Co weaves a play out of thin air and packs it full of comedy gold. In completely original and never-to-be-repeated performances James Buscher, Errol Koch, and Scott Pargot of Improv Mining Co use over twenty years of combined improv comedy experience to create hilarious characters, scenes, and stories. There's no telling what kind of story an audience will step into on any given night, but it's sure to be a wild ride.

Improv Mining Company has been making Helena audiences laugh for years through their improvised plays and musicals, sketch shows, and podcasts, and is delighted to partner with Montana Playwrights Network in bringing these upcoming performances to the Helena Avenue Theatre. The Helena Avenue Theatre (HAT) is the home of the Montana Playwrights Network (MPN), a 501 (c) (3) non-profit organization incorporated in Montana. The Helena Avenue Theatre is available to individuals, businesses, and organizations to present their own performances, recitals, and other special events.

MPN was formed to provide a forum focusing on story as expressed through a variety of formats including but not limited to playwriting, storytelling, poetry, history, non-fiction, essays, etc. We're looking to connect with writers, storytellers, teachers, performers, theatre companies, libraries, book clubs, and businesses that are interested in storytelling to build communities across Montana.
