

From Page To Stage Workshops & Presenters

Friday, APRIL 22

2:00 PM — 4:00 PM:

Creating New Plays Through Improv

Presenters: Jay Kettering and Pamela Mencher

Warm up your creative skills through improvisation exercises that inspire, explore and define key elements of playwriting.

Saturday, APRIL 23

10:30 AM – NOON

Creating Worlds Through Playwriting

Presenter: Rita Barkey

Refresh world-building skills and explore inspiring and compelling methods that bring ideas alive on the stage.

12:30 PM - 1:45 PM

Directing & Producing New Plays

Presenters: Leah Joki & Pamela Mencher

Examine effective techniques and discuss considerations to use in directing and producing original play scripts in their formative productions.

2:00 PM - 3:15 PM -

Acting in a New Play: What's Different?

Presenter: Jayme Green

Effective performers of new plays emphasize a different set of acting skills from those typically employed in creating an established character in a proven, known script.

3:30PM - 4:45 PM -

Story Dynamics: Exploring Possibilities

Presenter: Jay Kettering

Practice creative writing exercises that apply to nearly any story form and are specifically tailored for writing dynamic play scripts.