

New Play Readings Series* at the HAT!

Reading # 1: June 25, 2022 at 7:00 p.m.

Les Chiens Errants (The Stray Dogs)

A full-length play by
Ross Peter Nelson

In 1920's Madrid, three young men from the countryside met in graduate school. They would go on to change the art world in their specialties: Federico Garcia Lorca in poetry, Luis Buñuel in film, and Salvador Dalí in painting. But at the time of their meetings, they were just three "stray dogs" who made an instant and powerful bond with one another.

A bond that seemed insoluble, until the pressures of fame, jealousy, and sexual tension shattered their friendship, Les Chiens Errants (The Stray Dogs) explores both the arc of that friendship and surrealism, the mode of expression that marked their work.

Admission: $15 at the door.

Call or text 406-235-0353 for reservations,
or email: montanaplaywrights@gmail.com

Helena Avenue Theatre, 1319 Helena Avenue in Helena.

* Appearing 3-4 times annually, MPN's new play reading series features original plays written by Montana playwrights from throughout Big Sky Country. The evening's event consists of a staged reading of the play followed by facilitated discussion with play responders, audience, actors and the playwright.